

Facts, Fiction, Fashions and Features of Interest to Women

The Marriage Mill

By Mildred K. Barbour.
(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

"Where is your car?" asked Allison in surprise as she and Lawrence went down the garden path on their way to dine with his family.

"The big blue car, which had become such a permanent fixture at the Atherton curb during Osborne's impetuous courtship, was not in its accustomed place.

"The family went home in it," replied Lawrence, "Myra drives, you know."

Allison bit her lip.

"But why shouldn't they have sent it back to us?"

"Probably never thought of it. I should have gone after it if I thought you wanted it, sweetheart, but it's a short walk and a creaking evening."

"But look at my slippers," protested Allison, holding out a slim satin-shod foot. "The whole of Maplewood turns a sprinkling hose on its sidewalks in the evening and my shoes will be ruined."

Osborne took her arm and turned her back through the Atherton gate.

"What are you going to do?" she asked.

"Phone for a taxi. You wait here on this bench. I shan't be a second."

"But the taxi will—many seconds. You know Maplewood's unspeakable service. It's nearly 7:30 now. We'd better walk, slippers or no slippers."

Osborne stopped in uncertainty.

"I don't want to go for your own car," Allison suggested, "if your Aunt Myra hasn't time to bring it, surely someone else could."

"I don't think so, dear, and besides—"

He stopped and took out his watch, consulting it worriedly.

Allison's small foot tapped the gravel impatiently. She looked away down the street and her dimple was in temporary abeyance. She was beginning to realize that Lawrence didn't dare ask for his own car. It was a simple and a trifle disquieting, but she was a very brave bride.

Daily Horoscope

Uranus and Saturn are in benefic aspect today, according to astrology; Mercury and Neptune are adverse.

It is a government under which much can be accomplished because the mind will be alert and able to profit by past experiences.

There should be good luck for farmers and all who depend on the earth for their livelihoods.

Real estate is still subject to the best possible direction of the stars.

The aged should improve this day's opportunities since the influences are most promising, making for an increase of energy and distinguished recognition.

Psychic investigations again come under a way making for increased knowledge. Great teachers will come to the earth, the seers declare.

Some sort of bad news from across the ocean seems to be indicated.

This is not an auspicious date for beginning a journey of any sort; especially will the sea be unfavorable.

Shipwrecks, with loss of life as well as property, are foretold. In one of these a famous man will end his career.

Mercury gives warning against signing contracts or important papers of any sort.

The United States is to receive a supreme honor from the allies.

The seers foretell that a stream of money will pour out for the inhabitants of Europe and the Near East.

The new Moon of next week forecasts labor troubles that may become serious.

Educational affairs will continue to be unsatisfactory all through the autumn and early winter.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have a quiet year, which is nevertheless prosperous and advantageous. Temptations to dangerous flirtations should be avoided.

Children born on this day probably will be healthy, persevering and determined. In business these subjects of Cancer often have a hard time at first, but they later succeed.

AIR MAILS LIMITED BY LACK OF FUNDS

Failure of Congress to appropriate sufficient funds for maintaining the air mails has forced the Postoffice Department to rely on private enterprises to carry the mail over certain routes. Bids for such transportation on routes from Cleveland to Detroit, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, New York to Chicago and New York to Atlanta will be received starting today and will be opened September 10.

Hand-Worked Batiste Gains Renewed Favor

Bids for the laying of a twenty-inch water main on Illinois avenue northwest from Grant Circle to the intersection of Georgia avenue and Military road are to be asked soon by the District water department.

Superintendent Garland of the water department said yesterday that many improvements on the water system in Washington suburbs were under consideration, but because of the cement shortage it was doubtful whether much work may be done in the near future.

ILLINOIS AVENUE MAINS TO BE LAID

Bids for the laying of a twenty-inch water main on Illinois avenue northwest from Grant Circle to the intersection of Georgia avenue and Military road are to be asked soon by the District water department.

Superintendent Garland of the water department said yesterday that many improvements on the water system in Washington suburbs were under consideration, but because of the cement shortage it was doubtful whether much work may be done in the near future.

KODAKS $1 a week

No Extra Charges or interest

Chas. Schwartz & Son

708 7th St. 3123 M St

PRINCESSE CREATION OF THE JADE GREEN SILK

Times Square Theater in the fall. When she ordered the gown she had not heard of the play's name, so she takes the coincidence in the similarity of the name and the color of the gown for a good omen.

What's in a Name?

By Mildred Marshall.

One of the most charming and interesting little names in the feminine category is Sidonie, heroine of novels beyond number, and yet quite common in every-day usage. Sidonie is another of the names which are derived from places and means "of the city of Sidon."

Curiously, Sidonie is the feminine of one of the most famous masculine names of Roman history. Her predecessor was Caius Silius Apollinaris—yes, actually—Sidonius. He was said to be the most curious character of the dark ages, a literary and married bishop of Clermont, in the fifth century, who, though possessing a reputation for extreme piety, was vastly different from the customary conception of ecclesiastical sanctity.

This good man has been canonized by the church and the 23d of August has been set aside as his feast day. His only name-sakes have been common. France first evolved a Sidonie, a Spanish product. The daughter of George Podiebrad of Silesia, was Sidonie, also called Zedena. As early as 1488, Sidonie was in vogue in Germany.

George Cable, whose military romances are still widely read, even by the growing generation, did much to establish the popularity of Sidonie here when he so named the heroine of one of his most popular books.

The turquoise is Sidonie's talkative stone. If set in gold, it will protect her from all danger. Monday is her lucky day and 1 and 7 her lucky number.

(Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

JOHN L. LYNCH DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

John L. Lynch, a resident of Washington for fifty-eight years, died Thursday afternoon at Sibley Hospital, following an illness of more than a year. Funeral services will be held from his home, 3115 N street northwest, Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be at Oak Hill Cemetery.

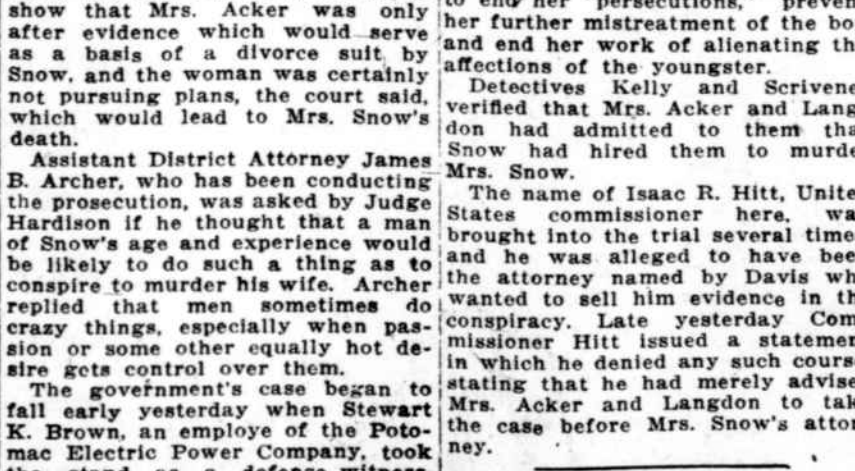

Mr. Lynch was a member of the Oldest Inhabitants Association, a Thirty-third degree Mason and a Knight Templar. He was affiliated with Hiram Lodge, No. 10, F. A. M., and Potomac Royal Arch Chapter, No. 8. He is survived by three children, John W. Lynch and Katherine L. Lynch, both of this city, and Mrs. Frederick Naimaster, of London, England.

Man Found Unconscious With Head Under Water

Winchester, Va., July 9.—W. A. Lester, Statesville, N. C., a truck driver, is in Memorial Hospital here suffering from injuries as a result of jumping when a pontoon truck got beyond his control and plunged over a bridge spanning Tumbling Run near Fisher's Hill on the Valley pike.

Lester was found by passersby with his head under the water and unconscious.

Fashionable Nancy

A blouse may be a simple thing. Or yet, through beauty, it may bring a most elite and cultured air. As this that Nancy's want to wear. In summer, edged with silken fringe that gives an Oriental tinge.

Marriage Licenses.

Harvey J. Waters, 24, of Lonsdale, Pa., and Helen L. Manners, 23, of Washington. The Rev. J. H. Jeffries.

Leon C. Heath, 27, of Jordan, N. Y., and Hazel C. Whitcomb, 23, of Washington. The Rev. Robert Talbot.

George W. Crockett, Jr., 26, of Chicago, Ill., and Rachel A. Smith, 22, of La Grange, Ill. The Rev. J. H. Jeffries.

Charles V. Jenkins, 22, and Carolyn F. Washington, both of Washington. The Rev. W. W. Travers.

Bunco G. Gillies, 27, and Garnett O. Sherley, 19, both of Washington. The Rev. J. H. Jeffries.

Oscar A. Taylor, 23, and Elsie G. French, 21, both of Washington. The Rev. A. T. Perkins.

Joseph N. Douglas, 40, and Mary E. Coleman, 27, both of Washington. The Rev. J. E. Willis.

William F. Meggers, 31, of Clintonville, Wis., and Edith M. Bantist, 28, of Shawano, Wis. Judge Robert E. Mattingly.

Thomas L. Moran, 45, and Lillie M. Godger, 45, both of Washington. The Rev. G. C. Chappell.

Donald G. Graham, 26, and Lenore L. Lawrence, 22, both of Washington. The Rev. W. E. Johnson.

Children's Sunrise Stones

By Howard H. Garis.
(Copyright, 1920, by McClure Syndicate.)

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE FLIP FLOP.

Out in the kitchen of the hollow stump bungalow where Uncle Wiggily, the nice gentleman rabbit, live, there sounded a clatter and a bang and a slam and a crash.

"Gracious goodness me sakes alive and some apple pie lollypops!" exclaimed Mr. Longears, who was trying to read his breakfast orange and eat the morning paper.

"What's that?" Something wrong? Oh, I see. I should have said he was trying to read the tablecloth and pour the orange into his coffee cup. Now we're all straight.

"Is anything the matter, Nurse Jane?" called Uncle Wiggily to Miss Fussy Wuzzy, his muskrat lady housekeeper.

"Oh, no, nothing at all," was the answer as the clattering, clattering noise sounded louder than ever. "I'm just getting ready to bake a cake—that's all. I am washing the cake tin."

"Oh, well, if that's all I'm glad to know it," said the bunny, and his pink nose twinkled twice as fast as a trolley car. Then he smiled for he liked cake.

As Uncle Wiggily finished his breakfast, and went out in the kitchen where Nurse Jane was still fussing around, he heard his muskrat lady housekeeper say:

"Oh, dear! I can't do it!"

"Can't do what?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Bake the cake," went on Miss Fussy Wuzzy.

"Oh, ho! Right gladly will I do that!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I'll go at once and get you some eggs."

So, putting on his tall silk hat, and taking his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, by the hand, the bunny gentleman went over the fields and through the woods to Mrs. Cluck Cluck's chicken coop.

The hen lady gave him some nice, fresh eggs and Uncle Wiggily was hurrying back with them when, all of a sudden, he heard a sad little voice saying:

"Oh, dear! Here I am caught fast and I'm afraid I shall never get loose again! Oh, what trouble I am in!"

"Oh, ho! Trouble. This is where I come in!" said the bunny gentleman. "But I must make sure it is not the Skeezicks or the Skuddle-magoon trying to fool me."

He peeked around the corner of the lollypop tree, and there he saw a queer little creature, with four legs, bright, snapping eyes and a long tail, caught fast in a crack of a log.

"Who are you and what is the matter?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"I am Flip Flop, the little lizard boy," was the answer, "and as I was walking on this log my long tail, that wiggles from side to side, became caught in a crack. I can't get it loose and I'm afraid I shall have to stay here forever."

"Oh, no, I'll help you out," said Uncle Wiggily, kindly. So with his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch he pushed open the crack in the log and Flip Flop, the lizard boy, came out.

What's in a Name?

By Mildred Marshall.

One of the most charming and interesting little names in the feminine category is Sidonie, heroine of novels beyond number, and yet quite common in every-day usage. Sidonie is another of the names which are derived from places and means "of the city of Sidon."

Uncle Wiggily wiped away some of her tears on his coat tails.

Lizard boy, could pull out his tail. "You had better come home with me and get a piece of Nurse Jane's cake that she is going to bake as soon as I take her the eggs I have here," said the bunny gentleman.

"Thank you, I shall be delighted," said Flip Flop, the lizard boy. So Uncle Wiggily put the small chap in his tall, silk hat and took him to the hollow stump bungalow.

"Now for the cake, Nurse Jane," cried the bunny. "And I have brought home some company," he said as he took Flip Flop out of his hat.

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear! Oh, dear!" cried Nurse Jane.

"What's the matter? Don't you like company?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, it isn't that," said the muskrat lady. "But my egg beater is broken and unless a cake beat up the eggs there will be no cake for company or any one else! I can't beat the eggs!"

"Please let me beat them for you," begged Flip Flop.

"Can you beat eggs? How?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"With my long tail, which I can wiggle sideways. Flip Flop!" was the answer. "Just set me on the table, wash my tail clean and I'll dip it in the bowl of eggs. Then I'll flip and flop my tail from side to side, just as my name says, and the eggs will be beaten."

"Let's try it!" laughed Nurse Jane. She broke some eggs into a bowl. Flip Flop, the lizard boy, washed his tail nice and clean and then he began to whip up the eggs with it. And really, he did ever better than the egg beater, so that soon the eggs were all frothy and Nurse Jane could bake the cake. Then Flip Flop washed the egg batter off his tail and he and the bunny had some cake and tea. And if the carpenter doesn't take the keyhole out of the closet door, so the hooks can't see to catch the rubber ball when it's bouncing on the dinner plate, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Flip Flop, who is Flip Flop's sister.

Man Found Unconscious With Head Under Water

Winchester, Va., July 9.—W. A. Lester, Statesville, N. C., a truck driver, is in Memorial Hospital here suffering from injuries as a result of jumping when a pontoon truck got beyond his control and plunged over a bridge spanning Tumbling Run near Fisher's Hill on the Valley pike.

Fashionable Nancy

A blouse may be a simple thing. Or yet, through beauty, it may bring a most elite and cultured air. As this that Nancy's want to wear. In summer, edged with silken fringe that gives an Oriental tinge.

Marriage Licenses.

Harvey J. Waters, 24, of Lonsdale, Pa., and Helen L. Manners, 23, of Washington. The Rev. J. H. Jeffries.

Leon C. Heath, 27, of Jordan, N. Y., and Hazel C. Whitcomb, 23, of Washington. The Rev. Robert Talbot.

George W. Crockett, Jr., 26, of Chicago, Ill., and Rachel A. Smith, 22, of La Grange, Ill. The Rev. J. H. Jeffries.

Charles V. Jenkins, 22, and Carolyn F. Washington, both of Washington. The Rev. W. W. Travers.

Bunco G. Gillies, 27, and Garnett O. Sherley, 19, both of Washington. The Rev. J. H. Jeffries.

Oscar A. Taylor, 23, and Elsie G. French, 21, both of Washington. The Rev. A. T. Perkins.

Joseph N. Douglas, 40, and Mary E. Coleman, 27, both of Washington. The Rev. J. E. Willis.

William F. Meggers, 31, of Clintonville, Wis., and Edith M. Bantist, 28, of Shawano, Wis. Judge Robert E. Mattingly.

Thomas L. Moran, 45, and Lillie M. Godger, 45, both of Washington. The Rev. G. C. Chappell.

Donald G. Graham, 26, and Lenore L. Lawrence, 22, both of Washington. The Rev. W. E. Johnson.

S. Mann Sons Company

THE BUSY CORNER PENN. AVENUE AT 8TH STREET

Store Closed Today

And Every Saturday During July and August

PRIZE BEAUTY TO BE CHOSEN

MAIDEN IN WASHINGTON AT PAGEANT.

Judges Will Select Loveliest Saturday Closing for Hot Months Starts Today.

The prettiest girl in Washington will be chosen solely on the merits of her natural beauty, and not according to her proficiency in the manipulation of the lip stick and powder puff. This was the final decision of the committee in charge of the children's pageant to be held on October 12, which met yesterday at Western High School.

As a feature event of the program the fairest girl of the Capital City will be selected.

The pageant will be enacted by not less than one thousand children who will be trained all summer by capable teachers.

To facilitate the enrollment of the children there will be a parents' mass meeting at Central High School, tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Ina C. Emery, who is in charge of the pageant, will preside at the meeting.

Girl Falls on Picket Fence From Cherry Tree Limb

Hagerstown, Md., July 9.—Miss Ruth Miller living near Kemp's, was injured and narrowly escaped being impaled on a fence when she fell thirty feet from a cherry tree at her home yesterday.

A limb breaking under her caused her to fall. In her descent Miss Miller's clothing caught on the sharp point of a paling.

Hold English Bigamist for Trial.

All George H. Meace's "wives" spoke well of him in court in London on a charge of bigamy. Meace has several war decorations. He is held for trial.

Frank Kidwell's Markets

MEATS PRICED RIGHT—NOT ONE DAY—EVERY DAY—

Another Week-End of Bargains

All Meats Positively Government Inspected

Fancy Native Steer Beef

Round Steak 35c lb.
Sirloin Steak 25c
Porterhouse Steak 25c
Top Rib Roast, lb. 25c
Prime Rib Roast, lb. 20c
Boneless Rib Roast, lb. 25c
Bouillon Roast, lb. 23c
Hamburg Steak, lb. 10c
Corned Beef, lb. 22c
Chuck Roast, lb. 12 1/2c
Plate Beef, lb. 25c
Shoulder Clod Roast, lb. 25c

Home Dressed Veal

Veal Cutlets, lb. 48c
Loin Chops, lb. 35c
Rib Chops, lb. 35c
Shoulder Veal, lb. 25c
Breast Veal, bone out, lb. 22c
Fancy Calf Liver, lb. 30c

Fresh and Cured Pork Cuts

Smoked Hams, 8 to 10 lbs., lb. 38c
Smoked Shoulders, small, lb. 25c
Pork Loins, whole, lb. 35c
Loin Pork Chops, lb. 40c
Leard Pork Chops, lb. 30c
Breakfast Bacon, strips, lb. 35c
Fresh Shoulders, lb. 26c
Fresh Hams, lb. 38c
Bean Pork or Fat Back, lb. 20c
Pure Lard, lb. 25c
Machine Sliced Bacon, lb. 42c
Sugar Loaf Bacon, lb. 28c
Brookfield Butter, the best, lb. 66c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, dozen 48c
Armour's Nutola, lb. 30c

We Carry a Complete Line of Vegetables

STORES LOCATED AT

Northeast Market, 12th and H Sts. N. E.
Eastern Market.
3272 M St. (Georgetown).
1920 Nichols Ave. (Anacostia).

1341 Wis. Ave. (Georgetown).
1916 14th St. N. W.
3033 14th St. N. E.
7th and C Sts. S. W.
2121 18th St. N. W.